Version 2.5.0. VP series IP phones. Operation manual

IP phones of VP series (hereinafter the "device") are designed to provide VoIP services to the network clients. The device is intended for operation in home or small office (SMB) environment.

This operation manual describes intended use, key specifications, configuration, monitoring, and firmware update for VP series IP phones.